Today is the 32nd year of hijacked Eritrean Independence

ሎሚ እዩ እቲ መብበል 32 ዓመት ናይ ግልልቲ (ገለለ) ኣርትራዊት ኢንዲፕንደንዛ (ሓርነነት)

Eritreans fought a long and arduous battle for their independence from 1961 to 1991, which they successfully achieved. However, their journey towards establishing a free, democratic, and prosperous nation has encountered significant challenges. Unfortunately, Eritrea has gained a notorious reputation for the absence of the rule of law, the significant number of refugees it produces, and the unjust imprisonment of individuals, including journalists, politicians, religious figures, and former freedom fighters, often without fair trials. Additionally, the country suffers from severe limitations on freedom of the press and political expression, widespread human rights violations, including mass arrests and forced conscriptions and forced labour, the closure of its only university, and ongoing conflicts with neighboring countries. As a result, Eritrea remains a deeply troubled nation, grappling with darkness and yearning for a brighter future.

Why do Eritrean brothers and sisters fight with each other?

Why do Eritrean brothers and sisters fight with each other? Simply put, the cause of this struggle is the hijacking of Eritrean independence and the establishment of a cruel dictatorship in its place by Iseias Afewerki, son of the unionist party hero. And the politics of his system is divide and conquer/ ከፈለ እውን ገዘአ. So, when Eritrean brothers and sisters fight with each other instead of fighting to bring home their stolen independence, it's just an unbearable and deep pain.

እቲ ዲትታቶሪ ኢሲያስ ኣፈወርቂ እዩ ሓደ ሰብ ገና ዝ ኣይ-ይፈልጥ ከመይ ትጽሓፍ እታ ቃል 'ሕዝቢ' ኣብ ቋንቋ ቲግሪይና ግን ሽሕክኳ እዙይ, ንሱ ኣልለዎ ቅብቡል ሓንቲ ዓብባይ ኣቅቀባብላ ካብ እታ ቺና ምስጋና ናብ እታ ሀብቲ ናይ እታ ኣሪትራ, ከም ወርቂ, ነሐሲ, ብናር እውን ብራንና.

The dictator Isaias Afwerki is a man who still does not know how to spell the word 'people' in the Tigriyna language
But despite this, he has received a great acceptance of china
Thanks to the wealth of Eritrea, such as gold, brass, silver and parchment.

Il dittatore Isaias Afwerki è un uomo che ancora non sa come si scrive la parola "popolo" in lingua tigriyna
Ma nonostante questo, ha ricevuto una grande accettazione della Cina
Grazie alla ricchezza dell'Eritrea, come oro, ottone, argento e pergamena.

ወረ ብዛዕባ ኣሪትራ News about Eritrea

Eritreans, both inside and outside their homeland, are approaching another Independence Day filled with mixed emotions. The occasion should be celebrated as usual punctuated by drumming, music, dancing, feasting, etc. However, beneath this outward manifestation, the reality remains stark: Eritrea and its people continue to endure the oppressive grip of a dictatorial regime. Since 1991, this paradox has been deeply ingrained in our collective consciousness, and it is rare to meet an Eritrean who does not recognize the emptiness of celebration.

While our hearts yearn for true liberation and a just society, the obligation to commemorate Independence Day persists, leaving us conflicted. We long for the day when international solidarity will fully manifest, bringing forth the support necessary to free Eritrea and its people from their current plight. It is through this collective effort that genuine emancipation will eventually come to pass.

ሓደ ሓድዲስ ምስልላ A new proverb

ኣብ ኣሪትራ ትሰዕር ወትሩ ኣይኮንን እታ ሓቅቂ, ግን እታ ግግይቲ ትምህርቲ ናይ ኢሲያስ ኣፈወርቂ.

In Eritrea, it is not the truth that always wins, but the wrong doctrine of Isaias Afwerki.

In Eritrea vince sempre non la verità, ma la dottrina sbagliata di Isaias Afwerki.
